

Verlag
von Gebrüder Kröner
Stuttgart.

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is dark blue with a highly decorative, ornate border. The border is composed of several layers: an innermost red line, followed by a wide band of gold and brown floral and scrollwork patterns, and an outermost dark blue band. At the top and bottom of the cover, there are decorative panels with a red background and gold scrollwork. The central area of the cover is a light beige or cream color, featuring a faint, large-scale floral design. In the center of this central area, the text "Verlag von Gebrüder Kröner Stuttgart." is printed in a red, Gothic-style font. A small white rectangular label is attached to the top edge of the book.
