

The image shows the front cover of a book bound in dark brown leather. The cover is intricately decorated with blind-tooled patterns. A large, vertically oriented oval frame with a scalloped, Art Nouveau-style border is the central focus. Inside this frame, the name "Felicia" is written in a gold-tooled, elegant cursive script. The name is embellished with delicate, symmetrical floral and vine motifs that extend to the edges of the oval. The entire oval is set within a rectangular border composed of repeating geometric and floral motifs, also blind-tooled into the leather. The leather has a fine, pebbled texture, and the gold leaf used for the text and inner border shows some wear and slight discoloration, particularly at the corners and along the edges, suggesting the book's age.
