

The image shows the front cover of a book. The cover is a dark, textured green color. It features a decorative Art Nouveau design in a muted blue-grey color. The design consists of flowing, symmetrical lines that form a frame around the central text. At the top and bottom of this frame are stylized floral or leaf-like motifs. The word "Nieritz" is printed in a black, serif font in the center of the cover. The overall aesthetic is characteristic of the early 20th-century decorative arts movement.
