

A decorative book cover with a red textured background. The cover is framed by a wide, ornate gold-tooled border. Inside this border is a narrower gold-tooled line, and within that, a decorative border of repeating oval motifs. The central area is dominated by a large, intricate gold-tooled floral and scrollwork design. A ribbon-like banner is draped across the center, containing the text 'Aus glücklichen Tagen.' in a black, stylized font. Below the banner, the author's name 'von H. Stöckl.' is written in a similar black font, also surrounded by gold-tooled flourishes.

Aus glücklichen Tagen.
