

The book cover is dark brown with intricate gold-tooled decorations. A large, ornate border frames the cover, featuring repeating geometric and floral motifs. In the center, a scalloped-edged label contains the title in a decorative, calligraphic font. The text is arranged in three lines: 'Schneewittchen' in a large, highly decorative script, 'und' in a smaller, simpler font, and 'Märchen.' in a similar decorative script. The background of the cover is filled with a dense, repeating pattern of small floral and geometric designs.
