

The book cover features a highly decorative, symmetrical border in a dark brown or black color. This border is composed of multiple layers: an outermost band with a repeating floral or geometric motif, followed by a wide, intricate band of stylized acanthus leaves and scrolls, and an innermost band with a repeating geometric pattern. The central area is a light brown, textured cloth. In the center of this area, the title is printed in a gold-colored, serif font. Below the title is a small, gold-colored decorative flourish.

Die
schwarze Tante

