On Friday they went to a Pantomime,—
oh!
That really was fun, for the children
said so;
They did not know again their old
nursery story,
So changed by the tinsel and gas-
lighted glory;
But they liked the Clown's tricks, and
the Harlequin's jumps,
And the banging and falling, the thrashing and thumps.